

Our current church building

The church moved to its present location in Mount Road Hinckley in 1975. The church was built by the members of the church. The photograph is taken from the opening day on 25 April 1975. Dr Martyn Lloyd-Jones preached in the evening.